

WINNER

WABI UMALAS

BEST PROPERTY DEVELOPMENT ASIA PACIFIC REGION

The results of the CNBC Asia Pacific Property Awards 2008 have just been revealed and WABI UMALAS is delighted to be announced 'Winner' in the category of Best Property Development. The award will be presented at a glittering gala dinner to be held at the Marina Mandarin in Singapore on 20th July.

The fact that WABI UMALAS earned one of these coveted awards is sure proof Bali can not only compete but triumph within the highly competitive Asia Pacific property arena. Having been given this high recommendation by its peers WABI UMALAS is now entitled to display the CNBC Property Awards logo as a symbol of excellence.

Entries were judged by a panel of professionals whose collective knowledge of the property industry is second to none and unsurpassed by any other property award. Chaired by Eric Pickles, British Shadow Secretary of State, this year's judges included Helen Shield, editor-in-chief of International Homes magazine; Peter Bolton King, chief executive of the National Association of Estate Agents; Phil Spencer, property expert and presenter of Channel 4's Location and Relocation TV shows; Imtiaz Farookhi, chief executive of the National House Building Council; Christopher Hall, past president

National Association of Estate Agents; Wilhelm Harnish, Master Builders of Australia (MBA); Thijis Staff, International Consortium of Real Estate Agents Association (ICREA); Santiago Herreros de Tejada, SIMA; Kirkor Ajderhanyan, French Real Estate Federation (FNAIM); Graham Norwood of the Daily Mail; David Hoppit, property writer; Paul Wyatt, head of design for LYCOS UK; Geoff Cohen, design director at Aukett Fitzroy Robinson architects; Jill Keene, editor of International Homes magazine; Diana Yakely, chairman British Interior Design Association; and Tad Zurlinden, Association of Relocation Professionals.
